

Principal risks and uncertainties

Our business is subject to risks and uncertainties and as such we have a risk governance framework to identify, evaluate, analyse and mitigate significant risks, including climate-related risks and opportunities, to the achievement of our strategy. We have processes that seek to identify risks from both a top-down strategic perspective and a bottom-up local operating company perspective.

